The statistician of the Department of Agriculture gives 10,100,000 bales as the probable cotton production of the United States for 1900-1901.

During the last fiscal year 28,206 Canadians came to us to become citizens. This may prove the better way of annexing the Dominion.

The Prohibitionists have already started their campaign for 1904, and claim to have accumulated already $7,000 for the new expense fund.

President McKinley is an inveterate smoker. While he was in Congress for fourteen years he has a record of having bought $7,000 cigars of one brand.

Girls are not employed at the telephone switchboards at Cairo, Egypt. Men are used and are required to understand English, French, Italian, Greek and Arabic.

Manila has about 165,000 inhabitants. There is a smaller number of saloons there in proportion to the population than in any city of similar size in the United States.

In Germany 87,000 persons, or one-thirty-ninth of the total number of those dying each year between the ages of 15 and 60 years, lose their lives because of tuberculosis.

Thomas H. Robinson lost his suit against John Wamaker for $25,000 damages. He claimed that the millionaire merchant prince made damaging statements against him in a speech.

New Zealand proposes to send a letter to any part of the world included in the postal union for 2 cents. The theory is that increased business will eventually make the system self-supporting.

The gunboat Bancroft has been ordered to Almirante Bay, in the United States of Colombia, with a view to the establishment of an American naval station there. A similar station may be established on the Pacific side and also one in Peru.

Circuit Judge Sneed of Knoxville has decided that the Tennessee anti-cigarette law is unconstitutional because it was not signed by the Speaker of the House. This point was not raised in the case recently decided in the United States Supreme Court.

The maidens of Denmark never experience the pleasure of receiving a diamond engagement ring. They are presented with a plain gold band, which is worn on the third finger of the left hand. On the wedding day the bridegroom changes the ring to the right third finger which is the marriage finger in that country.

The word "God" never appeared in any Government act until the year 1864, when, at the suggestion of the Director of the Mint, ex-Governor Pollock of Pennsylvania, "In God We Trust" was stamped on the copper two-cent piece. Before that time "E Pluribus Unum" had been the motto. Strange to relate "E Pluribus Unum" on coins never was authorized by law.

In a corner of the melting rooms at the New Orleans Mint is a large iron tank in which the newly cast bars are dropped, hissing, to cool off. At the end of a hard day's work the surface of the water shows a faint rainbow-hued scum, like the metallic luster of stagnant pools seen near a dyehouse. It comes in part from microscopic flakes of silver that have scaled off in the cooling.

$1,000 Worth of Good.

A. H. Thurness of Wells Creek Coal Co., Buffalo, O., writes: I have been afflicted with kidney and bladder trouble for years, passing gravel or stones with excruciating pain. Other medicines only gave relief. After taking Foley's Kidney Cure the result was surprising. A few doses started the brick dust, like fine stones, etc., and now I have no pain across my kidneys and I feel like a new man. Foley's Kidney Cure has done me $1,000 worth of good. J. Jas. Wood & Son and Armstrong & Co.
